Message From The Shop - January 2013

Happy 2013! Once again, the holidays are already behind us and we are ready to begin a new year. We had a great break with the kids. We traveled to Rhinelander, WI to Wendy's parents and then went further to Iron River, MI to go downhill skiing at Ski Brule. A full day outside in the fresh air on the slopes along with some pizza at the end of the day made the ride back to Rhinelander that evening pretty quiet! It was a lot of fun. We spent Christmas eating, watching movies, snowmobiling, eating and eating some more! I tell myself every year I am not going to overeat, However, I find it really hard to walk past the cupboard that holds the homemade peanut butter balls. So, with the new year starts all the resolutions again!

Our shop, like Santa's, has been very busy. After Mother Nature dumped all the snow and ice on us in late December, we have had quite of few runoffs into snow banks. The snow banks right now are like brick walls because the heavy, wet snow froze and turned to ice. Be careful when driving and coming to intersections where there is still ice on the roads. It doesn't take much ice to slide on through into another vehicle or snow bank.

As always, drive safely!

Apple Walnut Salad

The pumpkin seeds and homemade dressing make this salad delicious and healthy. Add some turkey or chicken and you have a main dish salad. After heavy eating at the holidays, it tasted good to try a new salad to go along with the resolutions! Add the pumpkin seeds and dressing just before serving.

- 1/3 c. honey
- 1/4 c. white balsamic vinegar
- 2 T. olive or flaxseed oil
- 8 c. torn romaine
- 4 c. fresh baby spinach
- 6 slices sweet onion, quartered
- 1 c. cubed Jarlsberg or Swiss
- 1 medium apple, chopped
- 1 c. coarsely shopped walnuts
- 1/2 c. salted pumpkin seeds
- 1/4 c. dried cranberries

In small bowl, whisk honey, vinegar and oil, set aside. Just before serving, place remaining ingredients in a large bowl; drizzle with the vinaigrette and toss to coat.
